

What are the titles of the top ten movies that received the highest sums of money, how long were they rented, and how much money was for each movie overall?

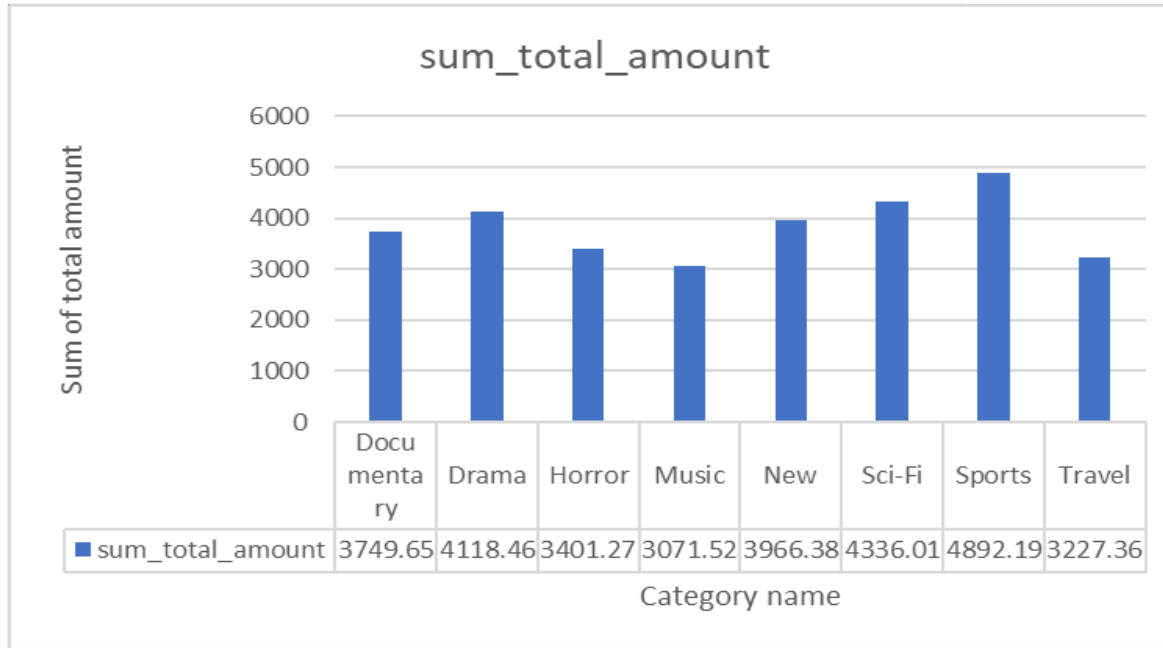

We can see that Telegraph Voyage received the highest payment, followed by Zorro Ark. For movies with high payouts, the typical rental period was three.

What amount of movies were rented at prices that were equal to or higher than the overall average rental amount? How much did Lethbridge and Woodbridge pay for each category?

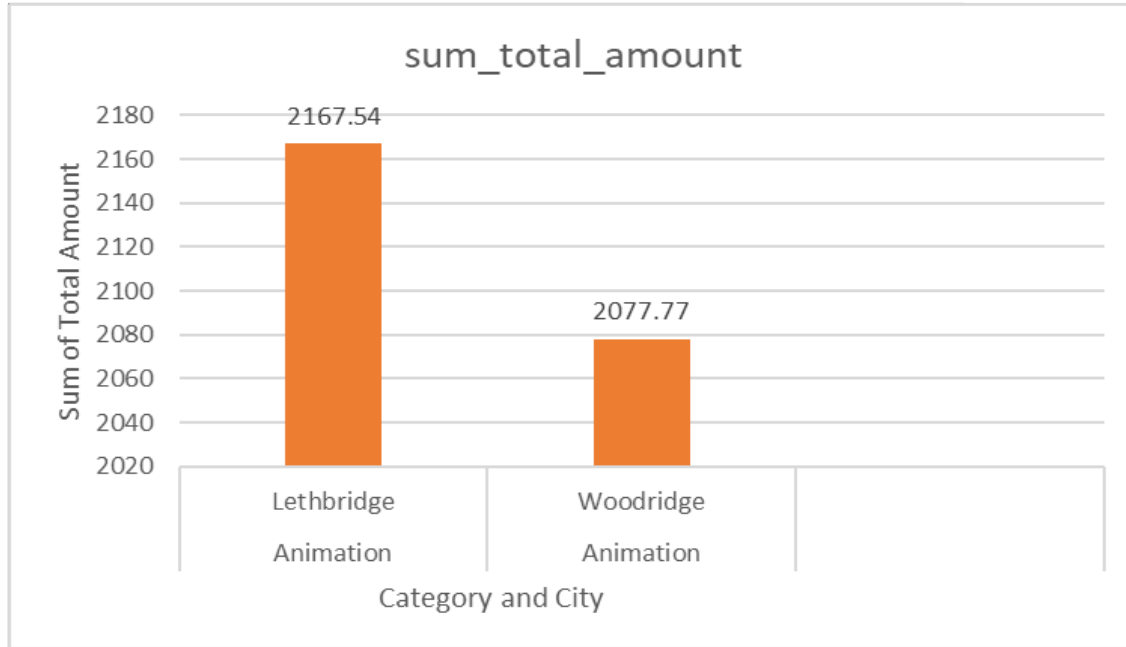

It is evident that the 'New' movie category has the highest amount, which is equal to or higher than the average amount. Additionally, we can see how much Lethbridge and Woodbridge paid for each category.

The film categories Documentary, Drama, Horror, Music, New, Sci-Fi, Sports, and Travel are non-family-friendly movies. What is the total amount paid for each of the categories of non-family-friendly movies?

We can see the total sum paid for each category, and we can also see that among the non-family-friendly movie categories, sports received the most money while music received the least.

What is the total amount received for Animation category , from Lethbridge and Woodridge ?

We can the overall total amounts paid for the Animation category by Lethbridge and Woodridge respectively.